Summary report: Faculty development program – e content

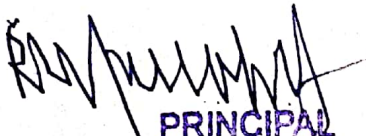

To be competent with developing techno world, good use of technology for welfare of students in this new generation is must. To accomplish this, for all the teaching faculties, “A training program for preparation of the e - content” was organised at D K V Arts and Science College Jamnagar. This hands-on training for developing e – content was conducted from 21/09/2019 to 24/09/2019. Training mainly led by Dr. G L Jadav. During this program use of presentation tube recorder for preparing PowerPoint presentation and different steps for conversion of it in video were discussed. Along with this creating own YouTube channels and uploading video on YouTube channels, maintaining privacy and copyright regarding our content were also considered. This training remained helpful to all the faculties in ease of creating video lectures and sharing it with all the students. By this step now sharing knowledge to students will not remain restricted to class hours only but they can use it as and when they require.

Hands-on training for faculties to conduct online admission process

As per 9/296/2018 Saurashtra university letter, in 2018, Shree D K V Arts and Science College, Jamnagar has decided to conduct an online admission process for first year students from the academic year 2019-20. With the aim of conducting the online admission procedure smoothly, all the First year admission committee members were trained for the process of the online admission during these training days (05-06-2019 to 08-06-2019). This training was given by Cygner software owner Renish Aghera. During this training following points were considered:

- Process for generating merit list
- Conducting admission process category wise
- Whole admission process chart was discussed, where faculties learned how students have to fill an online form, online registration process, Payment of admission fee and confirmation of admission at the college.

By this training all members of the admission committee became confident about conducting the online admission process and to go through step by step. This training remained fruitful for the welfare of students as well as the institution.

Professional Training for newly recruited Lab- assistants

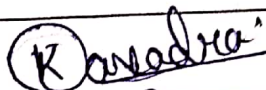

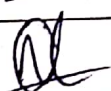

For smooth conduct of laboratorial work a training programme was scheduled by the institute for the laboratory assistants. For better convenience of the newly appointed staff and to inform those with basic protocol for laboratory maintenance a training program was organised from 25th July, 2016 to 27th July, 2016 at D K V Arts & Science College Jamnagar. This training was given by senior Laboratory assistant, A H Sagathiya, G P Mehta and R N Sonagara.

With aim to acquaint themselves well with the basic protocol for maintenance of laboratory as well as handling of new instruments, apparatus and chemicals, and corresponding proceedings etc. were discussed during the training. Besides, they were also informed about different administrative activities that fall under their workload. This training would be fruitful as it would provide better convenience to newly appointed staff to work with better efficiency at their new workplace, ultimately it would be better for institution welfare.
