An inspirational talk on Changing Role of Women in 21st Century

A talk on changing role of women in 21st century was organized by Arts Section on 29th Aug 2018. For this session Dr. Neeta Purohit (Head of History Department) faculty of D.K.V. Arts and Science College was invited to address the topic. This session was attended by all female faculties and all girl students of Arts and Science Section. Dr. Neeta Purohit had given excellent talk on changing role of women in 21st century by giving different following examples.

The role of women as envisaged by the society primarily as a wife or a mother. For a very long period of time in the history of civilized society, it was implied that, women shall cook, bear children and manage home.

Since the mid of 19th century, the work of Florence Nightingale, Rani Laxmibai – the Queen of Jhansi and Helen Keller began to give a new shape to women's role in our society.

With the advent of time and development of science and technology, women have left a mark of their presence in the fields ranging from driving to defense forces and sports to space. Kiran Bedi – first IPS officer of India, P. T. Usha - Athlete, Kiran Shaw Mazumdar – Biocon founder, Dr. Kalpana Chawla – American Astronaut, Arundhati Bhattacharya – former Chairperson of State Bank of India, Indra Nooyi – former Head of PepsiCo, P. V. Sindhu – World No. 1 Badminton player, MC Mary Kom – a great Boxer and World Champion, Mira Nair – a noted film maker, Chitra Subramaniam – a noted journalist who exposed Bofors scandal, Mallika Sarabhai – a well known choreographer, Usha Khanna – Music Director, M. Subbalaxmi – world renowned Carnatic Music maestro, TarlaDalal – a famous cooking expert are names of a few India born great women.

Today, women have shown their prowess in every field which was earlier believed to be dominated only by men and therefore women deserve to be treated at par with man in all aspects of life. Finally the session was completed by vote of thanks by Dr. Rajubala Jadeja.
